

DRUMMER

VOLUME 11 ISSUE 101 DECEMBER

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away."

Henry David Thoreau

Cover: The feel of cold metal offsets the warmth of a muscular body drenched in the man smell of a sweaty jock and well-used leather. The body is by Mickey Squires, the photo by Victor Largo, the fantasy is your own.

Back cover: Get on your knees, you sleazy pig, and beg! If you plead just right, you'll get all you want, but unless you are one hell of a man... it may be more than you can handle. Mickey Squires is more than a handful of man. Photo by Victor Largo.

CAUTION: Every decision a person makes, including the decision to get out of bed in the morning, has some degree of risk associated with it. We strongly believe that each competent adult must set for themselves the level of risk he or she is willing to accept. Some avoid crossing streets in heavy traffic—others stunt-ride motorcycles without a helmet. However, to intelligently confront and accept risk, a person must understand the dangers. While Drummer hopes to educate its readers on a wide variety of topics, its main purpose is to entertain! Works of fiction presented in this magazine are just that—fiction! They are not in any way intended to suggest or describe activities that anyone should—or often could—actually do. They are meant for entertainment only.

In other than fictional pieces we will emphasize safe sex with respect to contagious diseases and safe and sane behavior with respect to all activities, and will try to point out all activities which deviate from generally recognized safe-sex and safe-and-sane play activities.
