BULL

I can hear it now. "He's too muscular." "He's barely bearded." "He's too pretty." "It looks like he works out. Bears don't work out." Yup. Keep it up. In fact, go ahead. Tell him that. Or, better yet, tell his buddy Jack Fritscher, one of BEAR's Founding Fathers, who shot these photos during the filming of his Palm Drive Video feature "Sunset Bull, Sunset Bear." Dare ya. Wait... can I get my camera first?

Bull here says, "I want to know what makes your eyes roll back. First-timers, let me introduce you to my concept of "Home Entertainment Center."

He's 6'2". He weighed 260 pounds when these pictures were taken, but he's up to 290 now. As you can see, most of it is muscle. He lives in Florida and spends a good many days at one of those old-style, non-glitz gyms, lifting heavy things and - I'm guessin' - driving the semi-closeted bodybuildin' bear boys who undoubtedly watch him sweating with lustful abandon wild on a daily basis.
